Mr Coperthwaite.
Dear Sir:

Our watch-
clock failed to make the usual record after Four o'clock this a.m. therefore I leave it
that you make give the nec-essary directions for its repair
which of course should be immediate.

Until the return of Capt Banks who is sick - I will of course see that the patrol of the Watchmen is continued without interruption.

but I shall be glad of course
to have the clock repaired and returned at the earliest convenient moment.

[Abstract:] Watch clock needs repairing.

Phila.

January 10, 1884

Mr. Coperthwaite:

Dear Sir:

Our watch-clock failed to make the usual record after Four o'clock this a.m. therefore I leave it that you make give the necessary directions for its repair which of course should be immediate.

Until the return of Capt. Banks who is sick – I will of course see that the patrol of the Watchmen is continued without interruption, but I shall be glad of course to have the clock repaired and returned at the earliest convenient moment.

Respy. &c.
